

Association of sample-level PCs with known covariates tile label = variance explained (R^2); shading = significance. Cohort, control status and exposure group tested separately

