

Association of IterativeLSI / Harmony dimensions with known covariates

Columns are the LSI / Harmony dimensions themselves (per-sample means), not principal components of them.
Tile label = adjusted R^2; shading = BH-adjusted significance. Each covariate tested separately.
Bracketed unit: covariates constant within a donor are tested at the DONOR level (repeat draws collapsed); covariates that vary within a donor are tested per sample with a donor random intercept.

