

Association of sample-level PCs with known covariates

Every covariate tested separately against each PC. Tile label = variance explained (R^2); shading = significance.

Unit of observation = one sample. Cell type is not testable here (each sample is a single profile averaged over its cells); s

Age/Sex on samples with recorded metadata; predicted Sex and QC on all samples.

