

Association of pseudobulk (sample x cell type) dimensions with covariates

Pseudobulks of ≥ 20 cells. Tile label = adjusted R^2 ; shading = BH-adjusted significance.

Cell type and the QC metrics vary within a sample and are tested per pseudobulk with a sample random intercept; cohort, age and sex are constant within a sample and are collapsed back, so they are not counted once per pseudobulk.

